Waveland pier extension opens

Fishermen enjoy new pier

BY BETSY GAGNET

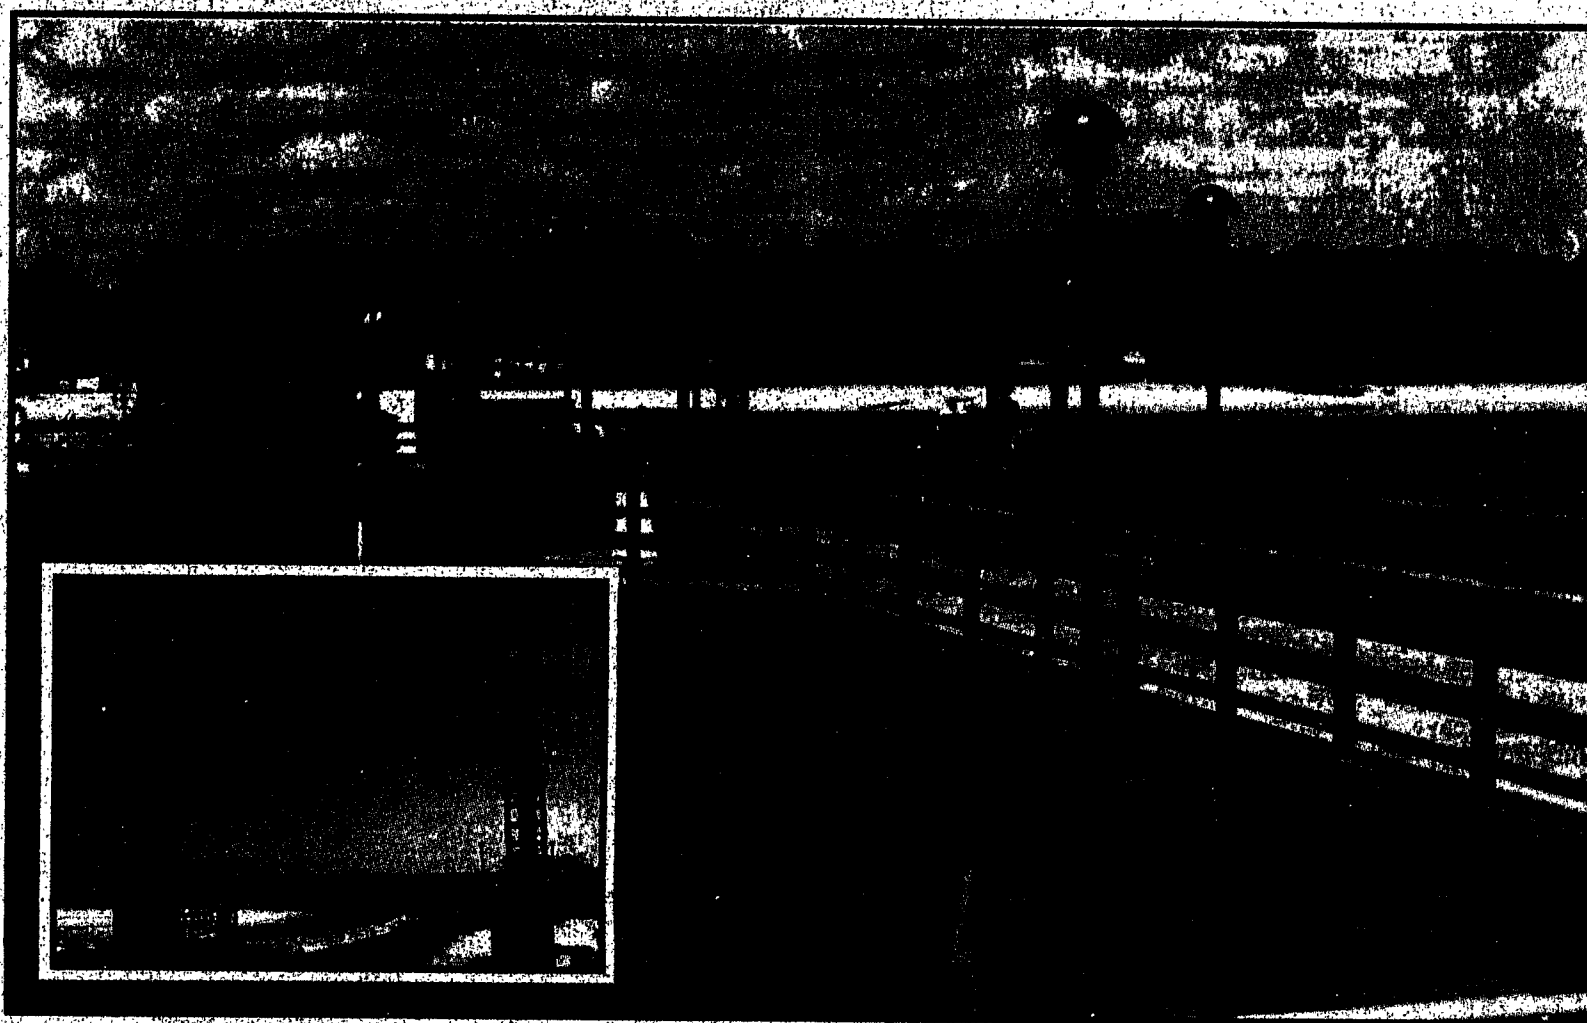

Fishermen have already begun enjoying the new and improved Garfield Ladner Municipal Pier in Waveland.

A 200-foot extension and several new covered pagodas opened last week, giving fishermen more locations to consider when casting out their lines.

In addition to the extension, the pier sports a new metal entranceway with "City of Waveland" scripted overhead in bright blue, and a newly renovated ranger station.

A limestone reef near the end of the original pier expected to mature this year, and a proposed new reef just off the end of the extension, could make the pier a favorite destination of area fishermen.

The Garfield Ladner Municipal Pier extension project was recently completed and opened to the public. Area fishermen have already begun casting lines from the 200-foot extension. The project also included a new entranceway (inset) and several new pagodas. Even the seagulls appeared to be content on the new pier. (Echo staff photos by Richard Meek)

Appraiser explains tax reductions

BY ED LEPOMA

E. Lee Bennett, Hancock County's chief tax appraiser, seemed concerned that supervisors have questioned a batch of petitions for a reduction in property taxes, mostly on parcels in Diamondhead.

At last Friday's recess meeting, Board of Supervisors President Philip Moran looked confused and overwhelmed when County Administrator Tim Keller presented him a stack of petitions that appeared as thick as an encyclopedia. Petitions by citizens seeking reduction in property taxes routinely come up at every board meeting, but not in "Appraisal reductions are routine. There's nothing to it. They could have called me over to explain."

Tax Appraiser E. Lee Bennett

such large numbers, and are routinely approved by supervisors.

Apparently, what alarmed Moran was the amount of reductions involved. He wondered out loud how the reductions, if granted, would affect the county's anticipated tax revenues, which have already been budgeted for various county services.

"Appraisal reductions are routine. There's nothing to it," said Bennett. "They could have called me over to explain."

The appraiser had recommended taxes reduced to the tune of $89,000 on 1,126 parcels of property in Diamondhead appraised for a total value of $1,670,186. The land, mostly recently undeveloped, is owned by the Purcell Co., Inc., a Delaware-based corporation that is the forerunner of the former Diamondhead Corp. and Diamondhead Properties, Inc. The Secretary of State's office lists officers of the corporation as: Artis E. James Jr., president; Holcomb Hector, vice-president; Carl H. Joffe, secretary; and Billy G. Alexander, treasurer.

The individual parcels are listed in columns on 76 pages, with 16 parcels listed on each page. The total reduction given on each parcel is listed in one column, along with the reasoning. In most cases, the reason given was a clerical error or an error in calculating the value of the vacant land. Another reason might be a single family lot was assessed twice, or that a building was listed on the property that was demolished or was on the adjoining property.

Bennett said the number of reductions requested since the recent reappraisal was low, considering the reappraisal team looked at a total of 46,000 pieces of property in Hancock County.

"In the case of Diamondhead, the appraisal format was changed," Bennett explained. "We used a discounted cash flow analysis to correct the appraisal value presented to"

Drug arrests now stand at 31

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS

A 31st person has been arrested in connection with a D.E.A. drug sting which centered around the Pearllington and rural areas of the county, Shane Oest, Hancock County Drug Task Force director reports.

The latest to be arrested was Leanne Smith, 44, 731 Washington St., Bay St. Louis, Corr said. He said she is charged with three counts of sale of crack cocaine.

Some 18 arrests were made last Wednesday when the sting became public. Eleven drug-related arrests were made during the operation which covered a five-month period.

The sting operation was led by a U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency Mobile Enforcement Team from New Orleans with assistance from numerous

Wreck snarls traffic

BY ED LEPOMA

An 18-wheeler loaded with steel cable and a late model Honda collided at Dunbar Avenue and U.S. Hwy. 90, about 3 p.m. Monday, temporarily backing up eastbound traffic at the busy intersection.

Bay Police Chief Frank McNeil said the driver of the 1997 Honda, Vivian C. Schneider of Diamondhead, was headed north up Dunbar, and the driver of the 18-wheeler, Gregory J. Wheeler of New Orleans, was headed east down Hwy. 90. McNeil said both parties claim they had the right of way at the intersection, which has a traffic signal.

While Bay police diverted traffic to the service road east of Dunbar, a team of technicians from American Medical Response arrived and placed both of the injured on stretchers and transported them to Hancock Medical Center.

Psalm 112:6

Thoughts for meditation:
 To awaken each morning with a smile brightening my face; to approach my work with a clean mind; to hold ever before me the ultimate purpose toward which I am working; to meet men and women with laughter on my lips and love in my heart; to be gentle, kind and courteous through all the hours of my approach the night with weariness that ever woos sleep and the joy that comes from work well done — this is how I desire to waste wisely my days.

—Thomas Dekker
 Some folks grow older with birthdays, it's true, but others grow nicer as years widen their view.

No one will notice a few little wrinkles when a kind, loving heart fills the eyes full of twinkles.

Grandchildren are the crown of the aged.

Proverbs 17:6
 Prayer is so often just words unspoken, whispered in tears by a heart that is broken.

For God is already deeply aware of the burdens we find too heavy to bear. I am utterly spent and crushed; I groan because of the tumult of my heart.

Psalm 38:8
 Today exemplify tolerance and forgiveness. Promote reconciliation with those who have offended you.

The love you give to others is returned to you by the Lord, and the love of God is your soul's rich reward.

The righteous will never be moved; He will be remembered forever.

The late Mr. Vic Green, a lifelong member of St. John Church, Lakeshore, will surely be missed by his family and friends alike. May God bless them with the extra strength in these hours of need.

CYO members who attended their convention this past weekend returned with promises there will be more news for next week, after they have time to recoup.

A Parish Mission will be conducted by Father John Izral Saturday, March 28. Father Izral will speak at all masses at St. Ann and St. John churches Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The mission will begin Sunday, March 29 at 7 p.m., St. John Church, Lakeshore and will continue Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Father Izral will also speak at the 8:30 a.m. masses at St. Ann Church.

Theme of the mission will be "Healing and Reconciliation." Stations of the Cross at St. Ann Church are each Wednesday at 6 p.m.

CCD and confirmation classes are held on Sundays at 9 a.m. in the parish hall.

The House of Prayer is no farther away than the spot where you kneel and pray.

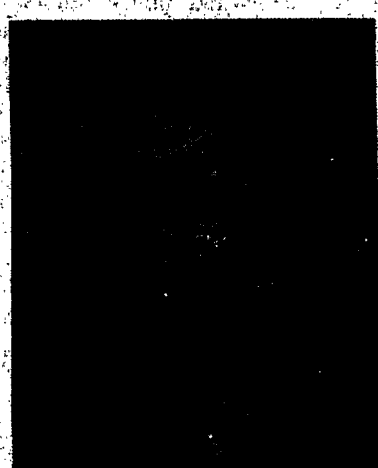

I bow down toward thy holy temple and give thanks to thy name for thy steadfast love and thy faithfulness.

Supervisors roundup

Resident airs cable complaints

BY ED LEPOMA

Ralph Hanson of Diamondhead is fed up with his cable television choices and recently asked the Hancock County Board of Supervisors to do something about it.

Hanson told supervisors at their recess meeting last Friday that last January, Diamondhead TV Cable, Inc., jerked WKRG TV out of Mobile off its cable offerings and replaced it with WHNO, which he described as "a fundamentalist religious station always soliciting money."

He said he and other cable subscribers depended on WKRG for up-to-date weather reports, and it was his feeling that the majority of subscribers did not want WHNO.

Gary Hand, general manager of the cable company, sat quietly while Hanson addressed supervisors, but later explained the company was forced to make way for WHNO under the Federal Communications Commission's "must carry" regulations since the station had requested access as far back as 1996.

"I feel if we didn't do it, we would have been ordered to carry it," said Hand.

Hand said he sent out forms to subscribers to see whether the overwhelming majority didn't want WHNO. Out of 3,700 subscribers, Hand said only 115 protested the switch, and one subscriber liked the station.

"We need more signatures to make any kind of change," said Hand.

At their recess meeting, supervisors also voted to get appraisals on the county-owned property next to Dunbar Village that formerly housed the Health Department.

Chris Creek, who operates the assisted-living nursing home, said his company is interested in acquiring the deteriorating property for future expansion.

If it decides to sell, the board would have to put the property out to public bid.

In other business, supervisors voted to:

—Solicit help of the Navy Seabees at Gulfport to repair bridges on the nature trail at McLeod Water Park and from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers to help halt erosion along the trail.

—Authorize Hancock Medical Center's Board of Directors to refinance the hospital bonded indebtedness. Representatives said the hospital could save as much as $200,000 by refinancing because of lower interest rates.

—Approve a six-lot subdivision off Firetower Road, just east of Bayou LaTerre Road. Developers said the upscale subdivision would have lots ranging from 2.7 to 5.2 acres.

Planning Commission attorney John Scaife said the Commission ordered developers to warn buyers that some of the area is considered wetlands, and they might have trouble getting a Health Department permit to build.

—Contribute a portion of the cost that Partners For Stennis is trying to raise for a lobbyist.

The group had asked Hancock County to contribute between $5,000 to $6,000 to help pay $13,000 they need to hire consultant Barry Rhodes of Washington, D.C.

Rhodes' job would be mainly to ward off any threat of the Navy scaling down or closing its research labs and oceanographic operations at Stennis in the wake of realignment and base closing talks going on in Congress.

District 2 Supervisor Rocky Pullman balked at the suggested contribution, claiming latest reports show only 19 percent of the work force is from Hancock County.

He convinced fellow supervisors to contribute 19 percent of what was requested — $2,470. Pullman said he would recommend upping the ante in the future, if latest employment figures show more local people are employed at the facility.

The organization will also seek contributions from Pearl River County, Harrison County and St. Tammany Parish, La.

Gavney warns trailer buyers of potential zoning concerns

BY ED LEPOMA

County zoning enforcement officer Willie Gavney this week issued a warning to Hancock County residents who purchase a mobile home without checking with his office first.

Gavney said this is the time of the year when Gulf Coast trailer salesmen stage huge sales events, but a purchaser who owns a lot in Hancock County, especially in the flood-prone areas south of Interstate 10, should check with his office first.

The county's zoning ordinance prohibits any type of trailer in areas zoned "R-1 Single-family residential."

"There are no exceptions. No mobile homes are allowed in R-1 areas period," said Gavney.

Trailers are allowed without a public hearing before the Planning Commission in areas zoned R-1A (a small portion of Diamondhead), R-2A, R-3, multi-family residential areas, and in areas of the county zoned A-1, Agricultural.

Trailers are allowed as a conditional use in areas zoned R-2, medium density residential, C-1, neighborhood commercial, and C-2, highway commercial, but persons must pay a $35 fee for a hearing before the Planning Commission.

In areas where trailers are allowed, Gavney said he will not issue a permit unless the health department certifies that the site can accommodate a septic tank or some other form of sewerage disposal is available.

"Mobile home owners also must pay a $15 fee outside the flood zone, and a $40 fee inside the flood zone before we can issue a letter of compliance, which allows the electric company to hook up the electricity," said Gavney.

Gavney also cautioned families that want to move an additional trailer into an area that already accommodates one mobile home. "Two or more trailers constitutes a trailer park, and they are not allowed in certain areas of the county," said Gavney.

"The bottom line is that people need to find out in advance what area their lot is in before they purchase a mobile home."

The Zoning Enforcement Office is located at 151 Main Street across from the Courthouse in downtown Bay St. Louis, and office hours are 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. Or, you may call the office at 467-4157 or 466-4727.

Waveland arson suspect arrested

An arrest was made Wednesday in a fire that heavily damaged a Waveland home.

Douglas Dietrich, 34, was arrested in Bayville Park Wednesday afternoon, Hancock County Fire Marshal Richard Pate said. Pate said Dietrich was booked with second degree arson, which is the burning of a dwelling.

The house, located at 209 Davis St., was heavily damaged in a fire in the early morning hours of March 17. Dietrich was a tenant of homeowner Jay Fleuriet, who is a Waveland alderman.

Dietrich is being held on $10,000 bond in the Hancock County Justice Facility.

Deputies from the Hancock County Sheriff's Office assisted Pate in the arrest.

Correction

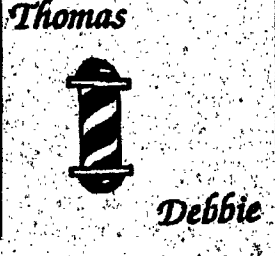

Starting time has been pushed back one hour for the second week of a martial arts camp being sponsored by the city of Bay St. Louis.

Recreation Director Les Fillingame said the later time would allow more boys and girls ages 5 and up to participate, since many ride school buses and don't get home in time to make the early starting time.

Instructions began as originally scheduled last Monday and yesterday from 3:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. at the Bay St. Louis VJCJ gymnasium on Old Spanish Trail.

For the second week, beginning Monday, March 30, the sessions will be from 4:30 p.m. until 5:30 p.m., Fillingame said.

There is a $15 registration fee. For more information, call Fillingame at 467-7135.

"CUEVAS' QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

Spring means Pilgrimage time for the three Mississippi coastal counties.

Activities begin today at Grasslawn in Gulfport with the Four Seasons Garden Club's Standard Flower Show from 3 to 5 p.m.

The Mississippi Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs event is at 720 Beach Blvd., Gulfport. Grasslawn is listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

There will also be a Grasslawn gardening seminars from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

A bit closer to home will be the Pass Christian annual Pilgrimage of Homes and also Pass Christian Isles Pilgrimage, which is to be held on Friday, March 27, 10 a.m. to noon.

This is the first year for the Point Island Garden Club to be involved with the pilgrimage in Pass Christian Isles.

There are two homes in the Isles on the tour, the home of Peggy Hesse, 112 Ponce de Leon Blvd., and "Liebenwald" Gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Miles (Thyla) Rogers, 100 Havana Blvd.

Many of the folks in Hancock County know Thyla Rogers, and I understand their gardens are very elaborate.

The Hesse cottage is filled with her collections of 18th and 19th century furniture and paintings from France, England and America.

An added feature at the Rogers' will be music provided by Mrs. Ollie McKenna, keyboard; Professor Marcel LaNasa, violin; and Allyson Keller, soloist.

On Friday from 1 to 4 p.m. the Pass Christian Garden Club's pilgrimage will have four sites on tour.

They are the home of Peter and Karen Morreale, 158 Spence Drive; the home of Bill and Deborah Jackson, 157 Spence Drive; the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shilling, 160 Spence Drive; and the home of G. I. Perry, 144 Spence Drive.

Spence Drive seems to be the "in-place" for Pass Christian's Pilgrimage this year.

Mrs. Nick (Petie) Hyman of Waveland is the coast-wide Pilgrimage chairman, and reminds everyone that our pilgrimage tours of homes and gardens are free.

Most pilgrimages charge for the tours of homes, which is not the case along the Mississippi Gulf Coast for the annual Spring Pilgrimage.

The pilgrimage runs from today through April 4, so you can see, there are many good opportunities to tour a lot of homes and gardens.

Other pilgrimage dates are: Ocean Springs-Gautier, Sat., Mar. 28; Pascagoula, Sunday, Mar. 29; Long Beach, Monday, Mar. 30; Historic Biloxi Day, Tuesday, Mar. 31; and close to home, the Diamondhead Pilgrimage is set for Wednesday, April 1, and Bay-Waveland Garden Club, Thursday, April 2; Friday, April 3 will be Gulfport; with Saturday, April 4, Biloxi homes.

I will be giving you more information as the dates near for Diamondhead and Bay-Waveland areas.

I hope to see you at the pilgrimages.

Do not forget, the Kiwanis Club is sponsoring the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life from 7 p.m. Friday through 7 a.m. Saturday at the Hancock County Walking Track in front of Hancock Medical Center.

A reception for cancer survivors will open the ceremony at 6:30 p.m.

A luminary ceremony will be at 9 p.m. on the track. To purchase a luminary, raffle ticket or for more information, call the RSVP office at 467-9204 or 463-7203.

Saturday is the big day for the annual Special Olympics Area III Track and Field Competitions at the Stennis Space Center.

The games are coordinated by the Naval Oceanographic Office.

There will be all types of competition.

For further information on the games or to volunteer for the Stennis games, call Karen Donlon at 228-688-5882.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. on Friday and Saturday for the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre's opening performances of the season. A matinee is scheduled for 2 p.m. Sunday, March 29.

"Relatively Speaking," a comedy in two acts by Alan Ayckbourn, is directed by Becky Rotundo.

The BSLLT is located on Boardman Avenue off Dunbar in Bay St. Louis.

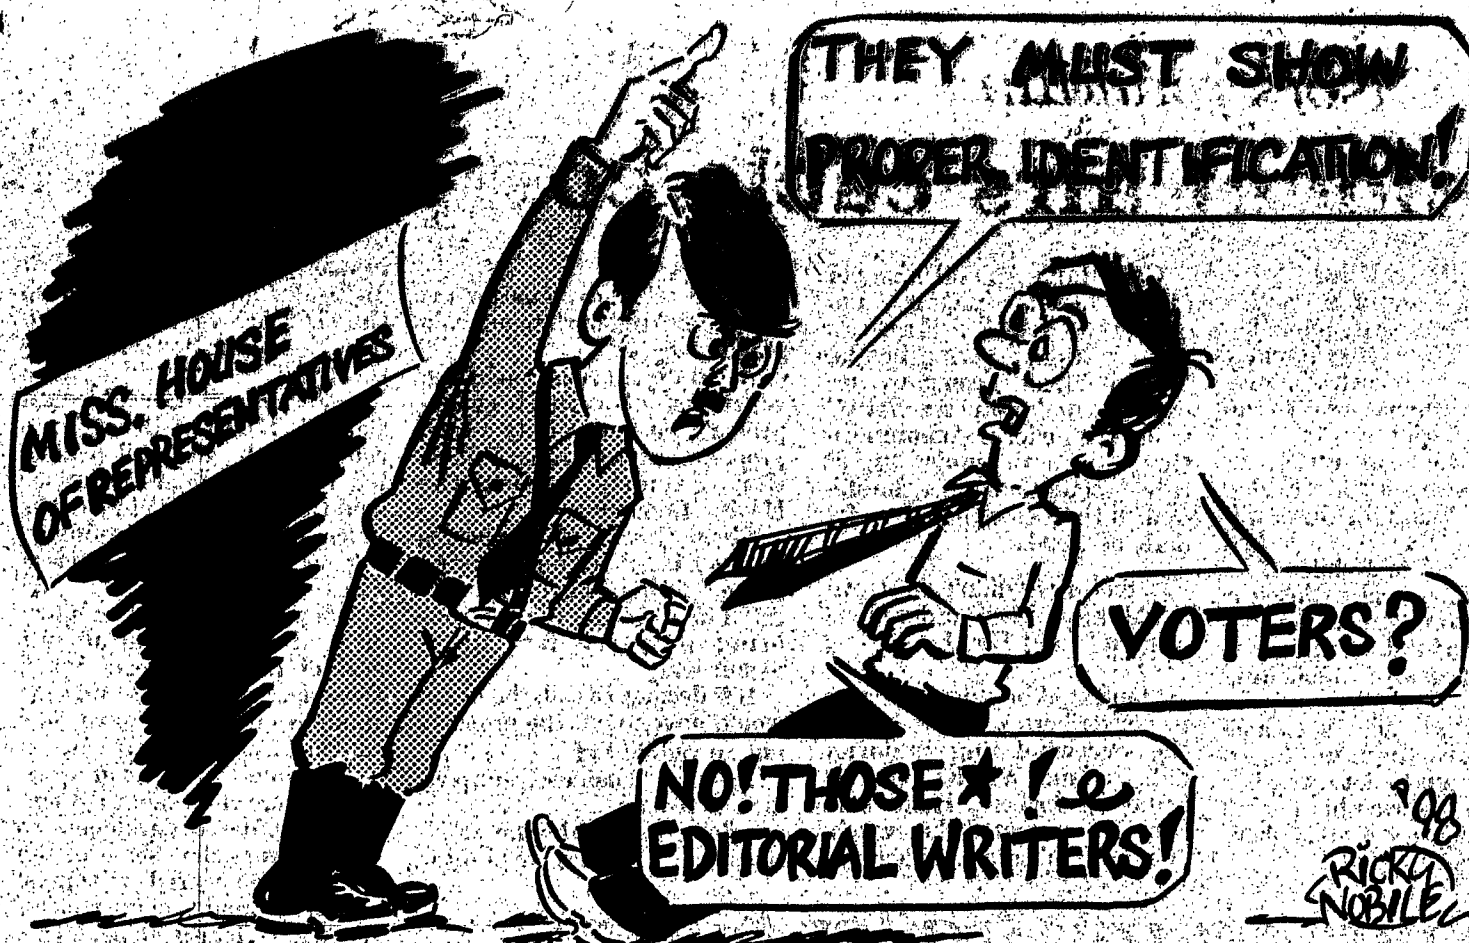

The "Spring Break" Project, headed in Hancock County by Anthony (Buddy) and Pat Pitalo, recently completed a cleanup of the seawall at the mouth of the Jourdan River. They are now going to tackle a very important project for our senior and disabled citizens.

The goal of the Pitalos through Spring Break is to make sure every senior and disabled person residing in Hancock County have smoke alarms in their residences.

Senior citizens and disabled persons can call the Hancock County Fire Marshal's office at 467-4709 and give their names, addresses and telephone numbers.

Buddy Pitalo said in order for this program to be a success there is a need for many volunteers and also community partners to help defray the cost of the smoke alarms.

If you want to help with this project or need further information, give Pitalo a call at 467-1192.

FROM THE MISSISSIPPI SENATE

By State Senator
Scottie Cuevas

Foster-care, reading program bills headed for Governor's approval

Sweeping reforms in Mississippi foster-care system will come from a Senate bill that headed for the Governor's approval last week.

The legislation, SB 2173, provides for new priorities and standards for operation of the state's foster-care program, qualified caseload managers to better serve the children and planning for permanent placement.

Among other features, the new law will require biological parents to pay for the foster care of their children according to their ability and will prevent the unnecessary separation of children from their families. Foster parents' rights also are spelled out in the measure.

The proposal came after months-long study and discussions with people directly involved with the foster-care system.

Also ready for the Governor's consideration is one of the session's most important education bills, SB 2944, which requires all public school districts to develop programs that will boost reading skills to or above the national average within 10 years.

Local districts are generally authorized to take whatever steps their leaders think will be most effective in bringing about improved reading levels, although poorer-performing districts will be assisted and more closely monitored by the state Department of Education under the proposal.

Another high-profile bill, SB 2888, which revises capital murder laws in reaction to the deaths at Pearl High School last year, will have House and Senate differences discussed by a conference committee.

In the closing days of the session, amendments must be approved by the chamber where the bill originated or the measure goes to a six-member conference committee to work out the differences. Then, the compromise must be accepted by each chamber or the conference talks start all over again.

At week's end, the fate of the so-called "swine bill," SB 2895, was still up in the air after the Senate disagreed with House changes.

WIN APPROVAL

A few House bills gained Senate approval without amendment and will head for consideration by the Governor, who can sign them, allow them to become law without signing them or veto them.

Among them was a measure clarifying law to state that casinos are not "watercraft" and not exempt from ad valorem taxes, HB 47.

Some House changes to Senate bills found approval when they returned to the Senate last week. They too are headed for the Governor's Office.

Counties will be able to contract with private collection companies to collect delinquent payments, such as fines, and add a percentage for the collection through SB 2187. Members of local planning commissions will be allowed to be paid up to $150 per day under SB 2603.

FROM THE MISSISSIPPI HOUSE

House approves bills for funding university improvements

House members approved funding for improvements to buildings on university campuses last week as the 1998 Legislature entered its final three weeks.

The bill would authorize a $66 million general obligation bond issue to finance an extensive repair and renovation program at the state's eight public universities and 15 community and junior colleges.

Also approved in the House was a $6 million loan program to be used for the redevelopment of the historic Farish Street area of downtown Jackson.

Most of the attention last week centered squarely on state finances. Lawmakers traditionally spend the waning days of a session preparing a balanced budget for the next fiscal year starting July 1. Included in the discussions last week was a pay increase for state employees, an issue left undecided at week's end.

The 1999 fiscal year General Fund budget legislators are working on is set at $4.106 billion. Budget analysts have predicted FY 1999 revenues will increase by 4.4 percent, or $130.8 million, over FY 1998 revenues. Lawmakers can budget up to 98 percent of the General Fund budget, a statutory provision mandated by the Budget Reform Act of 1992.

Educational activities, including all levels, are projected to account for the largest share of expenditures under the proposed budget, 57 percent, or $1.77 billion.

State sales taxes are projected as the single largest category of revenues, $1.225 billion, or 40.4 percent. Individual income taxes are next at $888.5 million, or 28.6 percent.

The 1998 Legislature is scheduled to officially end April 5.

The price tag for the renovation of buildings on the eight university campuses is $44.3 million, with the four largest institutions receiving $6 million each and community colleges $4 million.

Also under the plan, the state's 15 two-year colleges will split $14 million, with shares to be based on enrollment figures. A hotly debated issue last week.

was to include $5 million for repairs after fire destroyed the historic Cain Hallat Hinds Community College, but the funding was not approved. However, some expect the issue to arise again before the session ends.

Rowan Oak, the Oxford home of the late Nobel Prize-winning novelist William Faulkner, will receive $500,000 for repairs under a plan approved last week. The home is maintained by the University of Mississippi.

The plan to help fund the redevelopment of Farish Street in Jackson — an area two blocks west of the State Capitol — will make loans available to entrepreneurs planning to develop property in the historic district. The program would be administered by the State Department of Economic and Community Development. Loans would be issued at an interest rate not to exceed 1 percent less than the federal discount rate.

In other matters last week in the House: A proposed constitutional amendment passed the House that would allow only Mississippi residents to collect signatures for petitions seeking to place constitutional amendments before voters. Mississippians will vote on the proposed constitutional change in the Nov. 2 general election.

The proposed amendment is aimed at prohibiting out-of-state residents from collecting petition signatures, as was the case with drives in recent years.

Bonds were increased for the Mississippi Home Corporation, an agency whose goal is to make a decent home available to every Mississippian. The bill was amended to require members of the group's board and officers to be under the same ethics regulations and fiscal controls that apply to other state officials.

The blood alcohol content levels for drivers to be considered legally intoxicated was lowered from .08 to .02 to bring state law into compliance with federal standards.

A list of bills introduced in the House can be found at the City-County Library on Hwy. 90, Bay St. Louis.

Governor Fordice signs trauma care system bill

Governor Kirk Fordice signed into law House Bill 968, which establishes a statewide trauma care network.

Under the bill, Mississippians statewide will have access to high quality trauma care that is delivered at the new primary Medical Center in Jackson. The bill also established the Mississippi Trauma Care Task Force, which will be instrumental in saving lives.

"I want to thank the members of the Trauma Care Task Force and the legislators who have worked so diligently to pass this bill. All Mississippians owe them a debt of gratitude for their efforts," said Fordice.

HB 968 directs the State Department of Health and the Department of Emergency Services to develop and administer a uniform statewide trauma care system. Initial funding for the trauma care system comes from a $5 million increase in all moving violations. HB 968 was introduced by Representative Frederick "Dick" Fordice of Gulfport.

Dennis Assaf will bring his marvelous Jefferson Performing Arts Orchestra and cast to do selections from such favorites as Westside Story, Damn Yankees, Camelot, Lil' Abner, The Nickado, Big River, Peter Pan and more.

It promises to be a delightful musical evening, all brought to you by the Diamondhead Performing Arts Society.

Tickets are $15 and may be purchased at Diamondhead Discount Drugs or at the door the evening of the performance.

PLEASE NOTE

The Diamondhead Country Club workers are back on the job. Won't it be wonderful to have the new club ready for fall activities?

APRIL MEETING

Diamondhead Women's Club has IRS Blues Day Wednesday, April 1, 10 a.m. at Roberts Food & Spirits.

There will be an election of officers, guest speaker about the Lynn Meadows Center, year in review, and entertainment.

If you stay for lunch, it's $7.75 per person, including beverage and gratuity.

CELEBRATE FRIENDSHIP
Sunday, March 29 at 10 a.m. the Diamondhead Community Church invites everyone to a special worship service.

One of the great gifts God offers is his love through the friendship of others. Bring a friend, meet new friends in a very friendly church. There will be a reception after the worship in fellowship hall.

After the service children and youth are invited to celebrate with some special activities just for them.

ATTENTION

A Diamondhead census/survey will be conducted by the Diamondhead VFW in the near future. They will be asking questions that will determine the future needs of the residents in our community.

Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

IN OUR HEARTS

Because you are who you are we're friends. Whether it was your smile or your laugh that caught my eye, it was definitely your concerned attitude that captured my heart.

When we first met, I felt like I had known you all my life. I could talk to you easily, I could trust you with my innermost thoughts. I could laugh with you on the spur of the moment.

With you, my friend, I don't have to pretend to be anything that I am not. You accept me for who I am and what I represent. You are that kind of person who cares enough to allow and even encourage a person to be who they are.

You have helped me through what could have been a difficult time.

I appreciate your friendship. It is one that rises from our hearts and will always be cherished.

My friends are timeless treasures.

Windows '95 troubleshooting workshops

A workshop on "Troubleshooting in Windows '95" will be held 9 a.m.-noon March 28 at the University of Southern Mississippi Gulf Park campus.

Alabama bank to merge with Whitney

Elisha C. Poole, Chairman of the Board of The First National Bancorp of Greenville, Inc. in Alabama, and William L. Marks, Chairman and CEO of Whitney Holding Corporation, announced the institutions have entered into a definitive agreement for the merger of The First National Bancorp of Greenville and Whitney Holding Corporation.

The merger is subject to approval by First National Bancorp shareholders, approval from appropriate regulatory agencies, a due diligence review by Whitney and other customary conditions to closing.

The First National Bancorp of Greenville is the holding company for The First National Bank of Greenville, which has three branches in the Greenville area of Butler County and approximately $117 million in assets.

Whitney Holding Corporation, whose stock is traded on the Nasdaq exchange (WTNY), is the holding company for the Whitney National Bank with banking locations in the four state Gulf Coast region including southern Louisiana; the coastal region of Mississippi; Mobile, Montgomery, and the Alabama Gulf Coast; and the Pensacola area of Florida. The Whitney, which has been in continuous operation since 1893, currently has assets of approximately $4.3 billion.

William L. Marks said, "We at the Whitney are delighted to reach an agreement to be partners with The First National Bank, which has provided quality banking services to the citizens of Greenville and Butler County for over 100 years. We look forward to expanding our banking presence in this part of Alabama and building on the valued customer relationships that The First National Bank has established over the years."

Elisha C. Poole said, "We are excited to be joining the Whitney Bank family. For generations, the Whitney has been known for its commitment to personal banking relationships and the communities it serves. We look forward to the enhanced services and banking capacity that Whitney will enable us to offer our customers and our community."

Cellular South introduces Advanced Digital Service

Digital cellular technology that dramatically enhances local digital and cellular service was introduced recently on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Cellular South officials announced.

The digital system we're introducing will be the Coast's only dual-mode system," said Jana Ray, Cellular South's Gulf Coast marketing specialist. "That means for the first time on the Coast a wireless company is providing both digital and traditional analog service."

Previously, wireless users only service options were either all digital or all analog. Additional restrictions stemmed from the fact that users of digital service only had coverage where digital towers had been built, typically limiting coverage to city limits and interstates and highways.

When calls are placed from a digital phone on Cellular South's dual-mode system, the phone will first search for a digital channel for transmission. If a digital channel is not available, the dual-mode system will carry the call on an analog channel.

"People who want digital service need to determine if their digital phone will work on an analog system, because analog networks will provide by far the broadest coverage," said Ray. "That will eventually change, but if you have a digital phone and it won't work in an analog mode as well, your coverage is going to be very restricted."

Among the benefits of digital service are caller i.d., extended battery life, increased privacy.

supervisors last August. Previously, we appraised many lots at today's present worth based on future benefits. Many (lots) we appraised at full value, maybe will never sell. He said some of the lots have been on the market since 1970.

Bennett gave as a prime example the 40 acres off Aloha Drive, where the remnants of the Diamondhead motel units lay in decaying condition. The appraised value previously placed on the property was $2,024,900. Now, only five acres, where a restaurant is open, is taxed, and the value placed on those parcels amounts to $483,180.

In another batch of petitions, property tax reductions totaling $117,000 are requested on 195 parcels of other property, mostly by individuals throughout the county. That averages out to about $600 per parcel.

Although the total reductions requested amount to $206,000, Bennett said, if granted, the amount should not adversely affect taxes allotted to the county, county schools, or other agencies that share in the millage.

"Because real property (land and buildings) tax revenue only generate 55 percent of the total estimated revenue from the five classes of property taxed by the county, the latest reductions (in real property) shouldn't have a major impact on the adopted budget," said Bennett.

Bennett said, legally, taxpayers had until August to protest appraisals placed on their properties, but he continues to entertain requests for reductions.

"We encourage them to come in and talk with us at any time. If we have made an error, we'll correct it," said Bennett.

During the Waveland Civic Association's fishing rodeo last year, the pier was jammed with young fishermen hoping to land the winning fish.

The pier has withstood sev-

The total cost of construction on the project came in at over $264,000, with an additional $20,500 paid to Eaton and Associates for design. That $20,500 also paid for design of some additional work which may be undertaken in the future if funding becomes available.

The project was paid for with Tideland Trust funds awarded to the city. Future funding applications have been submitted.

Relay for Life set for Friday

The Hancock County Kiwanis Club will sponsor the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life scheduled for Friday, March 27, 7 p.m. at the Hancock County Walking Track, preceded by a cancer survivors reception to open the ceremony at 6:30 p.m.

A luminary ceremony will begin at 9 p.m. A luminary can be placed in honor of loved ones touched by cancer or in memory of those lost to cancer for a $10 contribution to the American Cancer Society.

An auction will be held at the Walking Track at 10:30 p.m. Jay Lagasse and Cal Gex are the local Kiwanis co-chairmen for the Relay for Life, which will be from 7 p.m. Friday through 7 a.m. Saturday.

Hancock County Sheriff Ronnie Peterson said last week, "We made a request to the D.E.A. some five months ago, and they furnished the undercover agents, money to make drug buys, and they made the buys. Several of the subjects were considered to be medium-size distributors."

Some 75 law officers were involved in last week's roundup.

Mr. T. P. Wheat, 71, of Poplarville (Crossroads Community), died Sunday, March 22, 1998, in Hattiesburg.

Mr. Wheat was a native of Louisiana. He was a Baptist and had retired from Kaiser Aluminum. Mr. Wheat served in World War II in the Marines and the Korean War in the Army.

He was preceded in death by a son, Billy Joe "Goat" Wheat. Survivors include his wife, Bonnie Rhodes Wheat; two sons, Jimmy Ray Wheat of Baton Rouge and Steven Gary Wheat of Crossroads Community; two daughters, Betty Crawford and Sandi Wheat, both of Crossroads; a sister, Mary Rile of Bogalusa, La.; a brother, Dillard D. Wheat of Waveland; 11 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Visitation was Monday evening at White Funeral Home in Poplarville. Services were conducted Tuesday in the funeral home chapel. Burial was in Crossroad United Pentecostal Church Cemetery.

Presley draws agency attention

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Spies for Mississippi's state segregationist agency didn't just follow civil-rights workers and others pushing integration.

Their secret files even included information on entertainers, Elvis Presley, B.B. King, Harry Belafonte and folk singer and troublemaker Joan Baez.

The records of the State Sovereignty Commission, unsealed this week after a 21-year legal battle, reveal that entertainers were targeted because many who played in the southern state of Mississippi supported the cause of integration.

Presley generally stayed clear of political issues, although some historians say he had a role in integration by popularizing for white audiences performing styles and songs that were first associated with black musicians.

A native of Mississippi, Presley apparently was invited to join a 1967 Los Angeles breakfast appearance by Mississippi Governor Paul Johnson. It's unclear whether Presley attended, but the invitation was approved by commission director Erle Johnston.

"Of course, Elvis Presley is certainly an outstanding star from Mississippi if you would like to include him," Johnston wrote.

In 1969, an unnamed commission informant reported that Elvis, the Rolling Stones and B.B. King were invited by Charles Evers, brother of assassinated civil-rights activist Medgar Evers, to headline a festival to benefit civic causes in Fayette.

Charles Evers served as the first black mayor of the rural town in southwest Mississippi. A subsequent report said those three acts didn't show, citing prior engagements.

The organizer "stated that he believed Presley was pressured by the white people," wrote the informant, adding that singer James Brown sent a check for $1,000 and that there were "about 500 to 600 hippies" among the festival crowd.

Others had a more direct connection to the civil-rights movement.

Earlier in 1969, an informant reported that Charles Evers went to New York to meet with black entertainers including Brown, Sammy Davis Jr. and Harry Belafonte to ask them to raise funds for black political candidates in Mississippi.

The files contain dozens of references to Belafonte, mainly newspaper clippings.

PASS CHRISTIAN ISLES
Friday, March 27—10 a.m.-noon
Chairman: Margie Butterworth
Host club: Point Island Garden Club

1. HOME OF PEGGY HESSE, 112 Ponce de Leon Blvd. Inspired by early Creole architecture of the Cane River country of Louisiana, this New Orleans interior designer and French antique dealer built her raised center hall cottage with wide front and rear porches for enjoying the views of bayou and "natural" gardens. From its subtle stone painted entry foyer to the expansive light-filled great room with its French limestone mantle, the house abounds with her collections of 18th and 19th century furniture and paintings from France, England, and America. The combination of pickled white oak floors, natural sea grass carpeting, and glass transoms over every casied opening promotes a serene, relaxed ambience with a decidedly informal mix of fine handmade contemporary and antique pieces. Venetian Fortuni fabric-covered pillows resting against the faded cotton of a Provencal "couverture" invite you to be seated on the down filled alpcovered sofas and simply watch the light on the water outside the windows.

2. LIEBENWALD GARDENS OF MR. AND MRS. MILES ROGERS, 100 Hayana Blvd. The garden of Mr. and Mrs. Miles (Thyla) Rogers and her daughter Allyson Keller, will be on the tour. Liebenwald is the creation of the professional artist, Thyla. Painted surfaces abound in the gardens, on gates and pedestals. Liebenwald is a garden of trellises of roses, kol and goldfish ponds, flowering shrubs, planters, garden swings and statuary. In addition to garden statuary, the beautiful marble statues of Botticelli's Prima Vera and a Rabonni Statue of Mary Magdalene will be available for viewing. Thyla and Allyson personally invite you to attend the viewing of their garden. Music will be offered by Mrs. Ollie McKenna, keyboard, Professor Marcel LaNasa, violinist and Keller, soloist.

1. HOME OF PETER AND KAREN MORREALE, 158 Spence Drive. This traditional style home has a wide, polished brick foyer leading into the main living area. Custom made Cypress cabinets add beauty and charm to the kitchen. There is a warm and cozy atmosphere in the sitting area where two white sofas face each other along with two chairs: one charcoal grey, one eggplant. A grandchild's portrait hangs on one wall. White sheer drapes are artfully hung throughout the house creating a light and airy atmosphere. This house flows beautifully and was designed for easy living and entertaining. A large back yard with wooden deck and brick patio complete the tranquil setting of this home.

2. HOME OF BILL AND DEBORAH JACKSON, 157 Spence Drive. This unique 3,050-square foot house was designed by owner, Bill Jackson. A large open foyer has 14-foot ceilings and is tiled in a soft blue grey. The walls are blue. At one end a seating area with twin white sofas face each other. French doors open out onto a patio and pool area. Angled walls define various living spaces and preserve the feeling of openness and the sense of space. The dining room has polished wood floors and is furnished in Damish modern. Custom built Ash cabinets with Corian counter tops are the focal point of the spacious kitchen located at one end of the large, open living area. The master suite is entered through double beveled glass doors which match the front entrance doors.

3. THE GARDEN OF MR. AND MRS. JACK SCHILLING, 160 Spence Drive. This is a truly lovely southern garden with Azaleas, Camillias, and roses in abundance. Koropetalum, Periwinkles and Rosemary share space with many other delightful plants making it very easy for visitors to lose themselves in the beauty and tranquility.

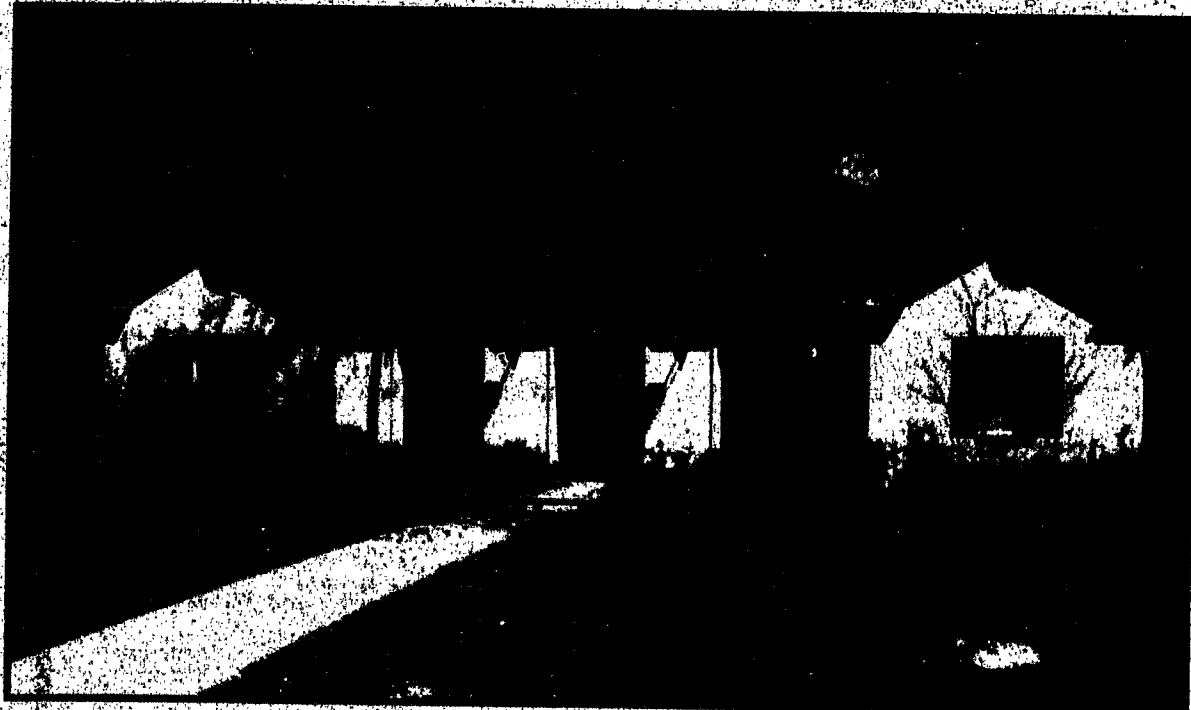

4. HOME OF G.I. PERRY, 144 Spence Drive. This lovely cottage with cream colored walls and polished wood floors is filled with many treasures which give the visitor a sense of family history. There are lovely antiques and paintings from Mrs. Perry's ancestral home in Germany, such as a collection of pewter that dates back to the 1800s. Two pink and white upholstered chairs in the dining room were purchased from the old Edgewater Hotel before it was demolished. The master bedroom has an antique armoire with a beveled mirror and a lovely old rice bed. A family room has a fireplace with a white marble mantle over which hangs a lovely portrait painted by artist Anna Fries in 1864. French doors open out onto a lovely solarium overlooking a patio and pool area. Refreshments will be served from 3-4 p.m.

Baseball roundup

Hancock sets record in win

BY DWAYNE BREMER
The Hancock Hawks made history Tuesday night as they won their 10th game of the year, an 11-2 drubbing of cross-county rivals Bay High. The victory made the 1998 season the first season in which the Hawks have won 10 games in baseball.

Hawk pitcher David Flowers dominated the Tigers, throwing only 88 pitches and allowing only two unearned runs.

After a scoreless first, the Tigers broke the ice in the second. Brandon Dupuy reached second on a misplayed fly ball. A groundout by Gary Yarbrough moved Dupuy to third, and then Robbie Henderson brought him home with another groundout.

The lead did not last long, however, as the Hawks tallied three runs in their half of the second to take a 3-1 lead.

The Tigers scratched for another run in the third. Casey Weems and Charlie Buckley had hits, and Weems scored on a grounder by Dupuy that was misplayed by the Hawks.

With the game close at 3-2, the Hawks came up with the knockout punch, scoring seven runs in their half of the third. Shaun Necaise started off with a double to right. Michael Ball then hammered a double off the left field wall, bringing home Necaise. Breeze Brockoff walked, then Archie Pouncey singled to center. The ball got past the centerfielder, and Ball and Brockoff came around to score.

Brandon Ladner and Robbie Randall walked to load the bases. Flowers then walked, bringing home another run. After a force play, Jabrell Cook was hit by a pitch that forced home the Hawks' eighth run. Necaise then singled home a pair with his second hit of the inning. After the inning was over, the Tigers found themselves down 10-2.

Flowers then took over, allowing only three more base runners in the final four innings.

The Hawks added one more in the fifth when Cook scored on a groundout by Brockoff.

"David was a bulldog out there tonight. I'm proud of him and the team," said Hawk coach Andy Perniciaro. "We hit the ball well, and executed well. It's the first time we have ever won 10 games, but we are looking beyond that."

Flowers earned his fourth victory against only one set back.

"I just tried to make good pitches and let my defense do the job. I'm just glad we won," said Flowers.

The Hawks are 10-4 overall, 5-3 in Division 7-4A. They are currently tied for second.

Bay High fell to 2-12, 2-6. In other games:

St. Stanislaus 5, Bay High 4—The Rocks rallied for three runs in the top of the seventh to defeat the Tigers on Friday.

Wes Ehler tied the game on a two-run, two-out double. Jamie Cuevas scored the winning run on a rundown.

Kyle Foster 2-2, picked up the win for SSC, 5-10, 3-3.

Foster had three hits and drove in two runs to lead the SSC offensive attack. Steven Knight added two hits.

Greg Dupuy and Gary Yarbrough had two hits each for the Tigers.

"Our kids battled to the end and gave themselves a chance at the end," said SSC coach Stace McRaney.

Hancock 9, St. Stanislaus 6—The Hawks scored five runs over the last two innings in their win at Stanislaus on Saturday.

Luke Christiansen, 2-1, was credited with the victory.

Necaise and Brockoff had two RBI apiece for the Hawks. Ball, Pouncey and Jabrell Cook each had one RBI.

Necaise had three hits and Darryel Williams, Ball and Cook two each for Hancock.

Kyle Foster led the Rocks with two hits.

Women's tournament final March 31 at Casino Magic

A 10-round heavyweight co-feature has been added to the program of professional boxing at Casino Magic Bay St. Louis as well as the final round of the three-part USA/IFBA women's junior lightweight tournament.

The NABF junior middleweight championship bout will headline.

The card will be televised nationally on USA Network's Tuesday Night Fights March 31.

Co-featured are (10 rounds) heavyweights Robert Hawkins (25-2, 5 KOs) Philadelphia, Pa., rated IBF No. 15 and Boris Powell, 25-1, 14 KOs) St. Louis, Mo., NABO heavyweight champion. Hawkins is a young heavyweight prospect coming off his best win as a pro. In his last fight, Hawkins scored a 10th round TKO victory in an all-action, exciting fight against previously undefeated prospect Gary Bell (15-0, 10 KOs).

Hawkins is matched against Boris Powell, a southpaw with skill, power and experience. Powell's only professional loss came over two years ago against current NABF champion John Ruiz. Powell is a former national amateur champion.

Final round: USA/IFBA Women's Tournament, four rounds, junior lightweights.

Kathy Long (1-0) from Pasadena, Calif. is a former kickboxing champion in Southern California. She is intense and focused in the ring and has good punching power. She holds black belts in Aikido, Kung Fu, San Soo, and Shorinryu Karate, but retired from competitive kickboxing when there were no more challenges and opened a kickboxing school.

She was voted Woman of the Year in 1991 by the Black Belt Hall of Fame and inside Kung Fu Magazine's Female of the Year in 1992. She was inducted into the Bob Elias Sports Hall of Fame in 1996. She has been kickboxing world champion five times, and was Black Belt Magazine's Kickboxer of the Year in 1992.

She writes a monthly column for Black Belt Magazine and is the author of NO, NO, NO: A Woman's Guide to Personal Defense and Street Safety published in 1993.

She has worked as personal trainer and consultant for actors Michelle Pfeiffer, Meryl Streep and Michael Keaton and directors Oliver Stone, Tim Burton and Robert Zemeckis.

She has held kickboxing and self-defense seminars in the United States, Europe and Asia.

Lena Akesson is a native of Sweden. She first started training in Muay Thai, the style of kickboxing of Thailand, at a very young age. She moved with her parents to Germany at the age of 11, then moved by herself to the United States at the age of 22 to go to school.

She couldn't find any Muay Thai competition in the U.S., so she started kickboxing and eventually started traditional boxing. She has an aggressive style and sets up her attack with the jab and lateral movement.

The main event is a 12-rounder for the NABF junior middleweight title. Champion is Tony Marshall (27-7, 10 KOs) Albany, N.Y., rated WBC No. 5, WBA No. 5.

Challenger is Anthony Jones (38-7-2, 26 KOs) Detroit, Mich., rated WBC No. 16.

The event features two veteran fighters who are at the top of their games. Both have given career-best performances in their most recent fights.

Casino Magic has certainly been a winning location for Marshall. His last two fights have been there, and the strength of his performances have earned him the North American Boxing Federation title and skyrocketed him into the top-10 of the world ratings.

Last Sept. 30 he won the NABF title with a decisive 12-round unanimous decision against defending champion Steve Martinez, and Jan. 6 he defeated New Orleans prospect Orin Osbey by eight-round TKO.

Jones, in his last fight Feb. 10 in Baton Rouge, scored a first-round knockout against previously undefeated rising young star Alex Bunema, who entered the ring that night with a record of 10-0, 10 KOs.

Last Oct. 7, Jones scored a ninth-round knockdown and fought to a 10-round draw against former two-time world title challenger Oba Carr in Auburn Hills, Mich.

Ticket prices are $30 ring-side, $20 and $10. Tickets are available at all TicketMaster outlets and at the Casino Magic Gift Shop. To order by phone with a credit card, dial 1-800-5-MAGIC-5, ext. 4535. Lineup is subject to change.

Waveland Little League tryout

Waveland Little League will hold tryouts Saturday, March 28 at the following times:

7-9-year-olds, 10 a.m.-11:30 a.m.

9-10-year-olds, 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.

11-12-year-olds, 1:230 p.m.

13-15-year-olds, 2:30-4 p.m.

Late registration will also be accepted. All coaches are to sign in 15 minutes before their age group is to begin.

For information, call the ballpark Saturday morning at 463-0020.

Late registration

Starting time has been pushed back one hour for the second week of a martial arts camp being sponsored by the city of Bay St. Louis.

Recreation Director Lee Fillingame said the later time would allow more boys and girls ages 5 and up to participate, since many ride school buses and don't get home in time to make the early starting time.

Instructions will begin as originally scheduled Monday, March 30, from 3:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. at the Bay St. Louis (VCI) gymnasium on Old Spanish Trail. The one-hour sessions will continue at the same time on Wednesday and Friday of the first week, Fillingame said.

For the second week, beginning Monday, March 6, and continuing the following Wednesday and Friday, the sessions will be from 4:30 p.m. until 5:30 p.m., Fillingame said.

There is a $15 registration fee. For more information, call Fillingame at 467-7135.

Soccer team announces team name, coach

When Mississippi's new men's professional indoor soccer team comes out kicking goals for the first time in June, they'll be out to establish themselves as kings of the turf with a name — The Mississippi Beach Kings — beating their royal quest.

The official team name was announced at a press conference held at the Mississippi Coast Convention Center by Roy Turner, vice president and general manager of the team.

The winning name was submitted by Dan Tibbler of Biloxi, who was introduced at the press conference. As winner of the name the team contest, Tibbler will receive two season tickets and will be recognized at the game on opening night.

The name was chosen from nearly 500 entries received by the team in less than a week after the contest was announced.

Also at the press conference, Turner named Gary Hindley, one of the most respected and successful coaches in American professional soccer, as head coach and assistant general manager of the team. Hindley has 201 coaching victories in indoor and outdoor professional leagues, a total which is second among American-born pro soccer coaches. The leader is Keith Tozer of the Milwaukee Wave and the National Professional Soccer League.

"We are truly delighted to have a coach of the caliber of Gary Hindley joining the Mississippi Beach Kings as head coach and assistant general manager," said Turner. "He is both a winning coach and a well-respected coach around the country. He's done what not many other indoor soccer coaches have done. Our goal is to be the soccer kings of the EISL in more than name only."

Hindley compiled a record of 87-44-12 (.664) in his first head coaching job at his alma mater, Trenton (NJ) State College from 1974-1982. The Lions went to postseason play in six consecutive years under his guidance.

Then it was off to the professional ranks when Hindley coached 366 games, earning coach of the year honors in 1984 in the United Soccer League, and in 1991 in the American Professional Soccer League.

Championship status followed in the NPSL, where Hindley was one of the winningest coaches in the 1990s. He guided the Cleveland Crunch to consecutive NPSL Finals appearances, winning the championship in the 1993-94 season.

Hindley's NPSL teams missed the playoffs only once. He still ranks sixth in the regular-season wins, fifth in playoff wins and sixth in total wins in NPSL history.

"I am really excited to be coaching the Mississippi Beach Kings," Hindley said. "The Mississippi Gulf Coast is a beautiful, friendly place with an outstanding soccer community and the team management is genuinely committed to having an excellent organization. That combination of things along with the community minded philosophy of Roy Turner and the team owners was just too attractive to pass up."

Team management has always been a Hindley trademark. Known to have a keen attention to detail, players have continually recognized his ability to combine that drive and determination with a friendly easy-going personality that communicates with players, fans and media.

The games will kick off each night at 7:30 and 5:30 on Sundays.

Indoor soccer season tickets on sale

Season tickets for the inaugural season of the Coast's newest professional sport, indoor soccer, are on sale now at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum box office.

The Mississippi Beach Kings' season, set to start in June, will include 14 home games against rival teams from Lafayette, Baton Rouge, Pensacola, Tallahassee, Huntsville and Savannah. The Beach Kings go head to head with Lafayette on opening night, Saturday, June 6.

Season ticket prices range from $140 ($10 per game) for sideline seats, and in the terrace, $99 for adults and $69 for youth under 12, students, military and senior citizens.

The money saving season ticket offer, which saves fans nearly $30 over the season, will be good through May 1 when regular tickets go on sale.

Season ticket holders will be invited to attend a special Meet the Team Party during the pre-season and will also realize a number of other benefits like priority seat selection, no waiting in lines to purchase tickets, a liberal exchange policy, priority ordering for playoff tickets and first chance for tickets for the 1999 season. There is a $5 handling fee per order.

Those purchasing season tickets are encouraged to select their seats at the Coliseum box office, although phone and mail orders are accepted. Payment methods include payment in full at time of purchase, credit cards (Visa or MasterCard) or through the payment plan which allows purchasers to hold their seats with a $25 deposit and final payment by May 1.

For information on season tickets call the Mississippi Beach Kings office at 228-385-1883 or the Coliseum box office at 228-388-6222.

Ditka-Magic to host benefit tournament

One of the largest charity events of its kind is once again hitting the Gulf Coast with entertainers, athletes and community sponsors for children who are battling life-threatening illnesses.

The Mike Ditka Legends Celebrity Golf Classic benefiting the Mississippi Chapter of the Make-A-Wish Foundation will be held April 2 and 3 at The Bridges Golf Course at Casino Magic in Bay St. Louis.

Hall of Fame athletes include Saints Coach Mike Ditka, Mike Lucci, Tommy Kramer, Paul Hornung, Lance Alworth, Don Maynard and many more. There are 25 five-man teams, which will include one celebrity and four amateurs.

Last year's tournament and benefit concert raised over $28,000 for Make-A-Wish. Tournament director and Make-A-Wish board member Ted Roberts said, "We've had a great response from all of the sponsors and celebrities. The tournament will be a fun event for a great cause."

Entertainers will take the stage Friday night to host a benefit concert in the casino's new entertainment center. Slated entertainers include comedian Tom Dreesen, actor-singer Tom Wopat, the Rajun' Cajun Doug Kershaw, country singers Roy Head and Tommy Lee Bradley, Blazing Saddles comedian Burton Gilliam and more, all backed by the Dean Scott Orchestra.

Tickets are on sale for $10 at the Casino Magic Bay St. Louis gift shop. Tickets may be purchased at Casino Magic in person or may be charged by phone by calling TicketMaster at 1-800-488-5252 or purchased through the TicketMaster website at www.ticketmaster.com.

Major Make-A-Wish sponsors include Roy Anderson Corp., Coach Mike Ditka, Sysco, IGT, Haynes Electric and Casino Magic.

String of Pearls tryouts set Mar. 31

Tryouts for Pearl River Community College's "String of Pearls" dance team will be held Tuesday, March 31 at 3 p.m. in M. R. White Coliseum.

Applicants must be unmarried and must be a graduating high school senior or a student attending PRCC no older than 24 years.

Candidates will be taught a dance and kick routine in the tryout session. All participants must wear dance leotard, tights and tennis shoes. Dance experience is desired.

Judging will be based on ability to learn and perform the routine, rhythm, coordination, personal appearance, poise, showmanship and flair.

A personal interview may be used for some participants. The tryouts are closed to all spectators. "String of Pearls" are required to reside on campus during the fall semester.

All selected will receive a $500 scholarship for the fall semester.

For information, call the Fine Arts Department at (601) 795-1180.

PRCC cheerleader tryouts

Tryouts for Pearl River Community College's 1998-99 cheerleading squad are set for April 3-4 in M. R. White Coliseum on the PRCC campus in Poplarville.

PRCC cheerleader coach/advisor Billy Temple says a cheering clinic is set for 3-10 p.m. Friday, April 3, while the actual tryouts are set for 11 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday, April 4.

Temple said $500 per semester scholarships will be presented.

For information, call Temple at (601) 795-9704.

4B-THE SEA COAST ECHO-THURSDAY, MARCH 26, 1908

Devon Besancon, a Junior Girl Scout in Troop 447, Waveland, is a winner of the Gulf Pines Girl Scout Council Cookie Coupon Quest.

The first girl to approach a business was awarded a Cookie Coupon. The girl who collected the most coupons won her choice of a compact disc player or a bicycle.

The Pearl River Community College Development Foundation Board of Directors has approved a full tuition scholarship to recognize a current student who has overcome extreme hardship while in pursuit of an education.

Devon collected the most coupons in the Bay-Waveland Service Unit area. Her choice of prize was a 24" mountain bike.

"The cookies are here now, so if you have not had a chance to order your cookies for this year, it is not too late," she said.

STARS telephone registration for continuing and reapplying students for the summer semester at the University of Southern Mississippi' Gulf Park campus is now through March 27.

Final registration will be held from 2-6 p.m. May 28. Late registration is planned 1-5 p.m. June 15.

For information, call USM
Student Services at (228)

KNS Theatre presents 'The Secret Garden'

KNS Theatre will stage "The Secret Garden" March 27-28 at 8 p.m. and March 29, 2 p.m. at the Seenger Theatre in Biloxi. Orphaned in India by cholera, an 11-year-old girl is sent to live with her only living relatives, an embittered, reclusive and his invalid son. The uncle's estate includes a magic locked garden.

"Flashbacks, dream sequences, a strolling chorus of ghosts and some of the most beautiful music ever written for the Broadway stage make The Secret Garden a musical treasure for children and adults," said Kathy Burns, spokesman.

The cast includes Angela Liberto as Lily; Jaqueline Coale as Mary; Judy Madden as Mrs. Medlock; Keith Ballard as Neville; Becky Green as Martha; Anthony Starcher as Archibald; Don Legrone as Ben; Ryan Ghotto as Dickon; Cody Dalgo as Colin; Cherrie Foley as Mrs. Wintrop and Leanne Toombs as Jane.

"Dreamers" include Jeff Cowart, Leila Gargoum, Gerry Cowart, Chris Gillrup, Loretta Dalgo, Brian Gigione, Allen Farrington, Alicia Bearson, Tom Lestrade, Joanna Johnson, Adam Miller, Leanne Toombs and Morgan Peterson.

Artistic director is Kinard Fite; musical director, Sandy DiGerolamo; choreography, Jennifer Krohn; stage manager, Amy Bearson; scenery construction, Jim Zippere; scenery design, Chester Delacruz; lights, Bob Montgomery; sound, Mike Maurer; photography, Scott Corey; publicity, Kerry Bass, Kathy Burns, Laura Maurer, Jennifer Krohn and Alicia Bearson; Videos, Skip Wusnak; tickets, First Day Theatre Ticketing.

Ticket prices are $11 and $15. Student tickets are available for all performances. For reservations, call 872-0504 or 1-800-872-9TIX.

Art exhibit opens at Carey

An exhibit of artworks by members of Shekinah, the Mississippi Association of Religious Artists, entitled "He Is Risen" will be on display in the Lucile Parker Gallery on the Hattiesburg campus of William Carey College.

The opening reception honoring the artists is scheduled 5-8:30 p.m. Thursday, April 2.

The public is invited to the reception and to view the collection. The exhibit will hang through April 24.

More than 20 artists from all over Mississippi have submitted works in a variety of media.

Barbara Parker, a paper artist and printmaker from Hattiesburg, began organizing the association in the fall of 1994 at the suggestion of Rev. Canon Charles K. Floyd Jr. of the Episcopal Diocese of Mississippi.

The exhibit can be viewed during regular gallery hours, 1-4 p.m. Monday-Friday, or by appointment by calling 582-6192.

The Lucile Parker Gallery is located in the Thomas Fine Arts Building on the college campus.

Slidell flower show

Members of the six-area Slidell garden clubs which make up the Greater Slidell Council of Garden Clubs, Inc., are hard at work preparing for the annual flower show April 1-2 at the Slidell Municipal Auditorium. The community event is free and open to the public.

This year's show, "The four Seasons," is being dedicated to the memory of Jeanette Rousell, past president of the Eden Isles Garden Club.

Flower show chairmen Marian Finnin and Lucile Tachdjian, hope for community support for this event.

The show will be open April 2, 2:30-7 p.m. and April 2, 10 a.m.-1 p.m.

Presentation of awards will take place April 2 at 12:45 p.m.

There will also be a raffle held consisting of a bird bath and accessories. Tickets at $1 are available at the door. Drawing will be held April 2 at 12:45 p.m.

Flutist to perform at USM

Renowned flutist Jean Pierre Rampal will perform a concert with the University of Southern Mississippi Symphony Chamber Orchestra April 19.

The world-famous artist, who makes annual tours of North America and has played with leading symphony orchestras around the world, has received many honors during his career.

The concert on the USM campus will feature musical pieces from Bach to Stamitz and is part of the program, "A Weekend with Jean Pierre Rampal," April 17-19 in conjunction with The Splendors of Versailles exhibition.

Students who would like to enroll for the weekend program have an opportunity to participate in a master class, attend recitals and talk to the artist during an informal social hour.

A visit to the "Splendors of Versailles" exhibit in Jackson also will be made.

The concert will be held in the Bennett Auditorium April 19 at 7 p.m. General admission is $15. For information or ticket reservations, call 261-1309 or 261-1310.

Clint Black scheduled at Grand
The Biloxi Grand Theatre will present award-winning singer-songwriter Clint Black as part of his "Nothin' But The Taillight" ACDelco-sponsored national tour. Clint Black will perform at the Biloxi Grand Theatre Thursday and Friday, April 9 and 10 at 7:30 p.m.
Black burst onto the country music scene in 1989 with his debut album "Killin' Time," which yielded an unprecedented five number-one hits. The singles "A Better Man," "Killin' Time," "Nobody's Home," "Walking Away," and "Nothing's News," pushed the album to the double-platinum status.
A multi-dimensional performer, Black writes all of the material he releases. His songs express honest emotion and showcase his expressive tenor voice. In October 1989 Black was awarded the Country Music Association's prestigious Horizon Award for his achievements as a new artist.
"Put Yourself in My Shoes," released in 1990 was Black's second album. It yielded four more top-10 hits and became his second multi-million selling album. By the end of 1990, Black was headlining his own concert tour and collecting awards by the shelf-full. He won the Country Music Association Male Vocalist of the Year Award, the American Music Award as Favorite New Male Country Artist, and also received Album of the Year, Single of the Year, Best New Male Vocalist, and Best Male Vocalist awards for the Academy of Country Music.

Black joined the cast of the Grand Ole Opry in 1991 and released his third album, "The Hard Way," in 1992. His 1993 duet with Wynonna, "A Bad Goodbye," became a hit, and their national tour together was named Concert of the Year by Playboy. Billboard magazine named him Most Played Country artist of 1994.

Earlier this year Black was nominated for two Grammy Awards — Best Male Country Vocal Performance for "Something That We Do" and Best Country Vocal Collaboration for "Still Holding On." Both are from his current CD "Nothin' But The Taillights."

Tickets are $35/floor and $30/balcony and are available at the Biloxi Grand Theatre Box Office. (1-800-WIN-2-WIN). Tickets are also available at TicketMaster outlets.

Alabama guest wins $8,052,300 on Wheel of Fortune at Grand Playing at Grand Casino Biloxi on IGTV's Wheel of Fortune game proved to be the ultimate game to play for Alabama guest Gary Jernigan Saturday, March 21. Jernigan hit the biggest jackpot in the state's history and won a whopping $8,052,300.

Wheel of Fortune, one of International Gaming Technology's wide-area progressive slot systems, was introduced last year and has quickly become a favorite of slot players.

Jernigan, 38, and his wife Darlene, 30, had made their fourth trip since August 1996 to the Mississippi Gulf Coast to play at Grand Casino Biloxi.

First playing on the quarter machines, Mr. and Mrs. Jernigan then moved to the progressive $1 Wheel of Fortune game where they played side-by-side for nearly an hour. When the alarm sounded, Jernigan looked up and thought he had won approximately $4,000.

A few moments later, a shift manager came to check out what Mr. Jernigan had actually won and told him that he had really hit the jackpot!

Said Jernigan, "Before we won the $8 million, Grand Casino Biloxi was the best in pay-offs. This is a complete shock. It hasn't hit home yet — we still don't believe it. Both Darlene and I thank God and Grand Casinos!"

This is the second time Grand Casino Biloxi has set state records in one-time jackpot pay-offs. The first occurred in April 1995 when a Birmingham man won over $5 million. Jernigan's $8 million jackpot will be paid out over the next 20 years.

The Biloxi Grand Theatre will present award-winning singer-songwriter Clint Black as part of his "Nothin' But The Taillight" ACDelco-sponsored national tour. Clint Black will perform at the Biloxi Grand Theatre Thursday and Friday, April 9 and 10 at 7:30 p.m.
Black burst onto the country music scene in 1989 with his debut album "Killin' Time," which yielded an unprecedented five number-one hits. The singles "A Better Man," "Killin' Time," "Nobody's Home," "Walking Away," and "Nothing's News," pushed the album to the double-platinum status.
A multi-dimensional performer, Black writes all of the material he releases. His songs express honest emotion and showcase his expressive tenor voice. In October 1989 Black was awarded the Country Music Association's prestigious Horizon Award for his achievements as a new artist.
"Put Yourself in My Shoes," released in 1990 was Black's second album. It yielded four more top-10 hits and became his second multi-million selling album. By the end of 1990, Black was headlining his own concert tour and collecting awards by the shelf-full. He won the Country Music Association Male Vocalist of the Year Award, the American Music Award as Favorite New Male Country Artist, and also received Album of the Year, Single of the Year, Best New Male Vocalist, and Best Male Vocalist awards for the Academy of Country Music.

Black joined the cast of the Grand Ole Opry in 1991 and released his third album, "The Hard Way," in 1992. His 1993 duet with Wynonna, "A Bad Goodbye," became a hit, and their national tour together was named Concert of the Year by Playboy. Billboard magazine named him Most Played Country artist of 1994.

Earlier this year Black was nominated for two Grammy Awards — Best Male Country Vocal Performance for "Something That We Do" and Best Country Vocal Collaboration for "Still Holding On." Both are from his current CD "Nothin' But The Taillights."

Tickets are $35/floor and $30/balcony and are available at the Biloxi Grand Theatre Box Office. (1-800-WIN-2-WIN). Tickets are also available at TicketMaster outlets.
